Headline

Superintendent Peter Pumpkin of the Fairy Tale Police has promised to do all he can to find the beautiful young lady who left the Royal Ball so suddenly on Saturday evening.

The mystery lady arrived at the ball in a beautiful golden carriage drawn by six lovely white horses. She was wearing an exquisite white gown and a pair of sparkling glass slippers. "The mysterious young guest was in such a hurry to leave that she lost one of her pretty little slippers," explained Superintendent Pumpkin. "We'd like to find out who she is so that we can make sure the slipper is returned to its owner."

Another guest at the ball told us that the police are not the only ones searching for the mystery lady. "Prince Charming is desperate to track her down. He wouldn't dance with anyone else all evening!"

The search continues.
